

The Senior Citizens Commission is a nine member body appointed by the Mayor with the confirmation of the Council and charged with proposing programs, activities, legislation, etc., to meet the needs of senior citizens in Rockville and with conducting such studies as are necessary to determine those needs. In addition, the Commission has three subcommittees on Communication, Education and the recently established Events Committee. Currently the Commission is participating in a Task Force addressing the pros and cons of the changing the age from 60 to 55 to join the Rockville Senior Center. Applications for the Senior Commission are currently being accepted.

For more details on the commission, its membership and responsibilities, please visit here or please fill out an expression of interest form.

Interested candidates may also call the City Clerk's office at 240-314-8280